

ENTERTAINMENT INDUSTRY

Organization	Details	Training Type	Website/Contact	Other Fields Applicable
Club Operators Against Sex Trafficking	The organization was founded in Miami, Florida after an increase in human trafficking awareness. COAST works to educate different club owners and club employees about the signs of human trafficking and what to do in a suspicious situation.	In- Person / Awareness Educational	www.dhs.gov/topic/human-trafficking	Law Enforcement
Ohio State School of Cosmetology	Salons in Ohio are being required to attend and pass a human trafficking awareness training in order to renew their licenses. Salon owners are excited about the training because of the high volume of youth that are traveling into and out of the shop. This training program is part of a task force being implemented by the Governor of Ohio. Other departments that are required to receive trainings are: department of job and family services, department of agriculture, department of mental health and addictions services, Department of Education, Department of Medicaid, Department of Youth Services, Department of Public Safety, Department of Health.	In- Person Training	http://humantrafficking.ohio.gov/OhioHumanTraffickingTaskforce.aspx	Social Services and Law Enforcement
Oregonians Against Trafficking Humans (OATH)	To SuperBowl and Beyond: Nita has worked in anti-trafficking efforts for the last five Super Bowls. She brings stories and expertise that can only be gained by experience such as hers. This training can be a general presentation about human trafficking at the SuperBowl, or tailored to law enforcement, non-profits, social services, or the community in general	In- Person Training	www.cooath.org / Nita Belles	Law Enforcement, Social Services, General Public